Illinois Song

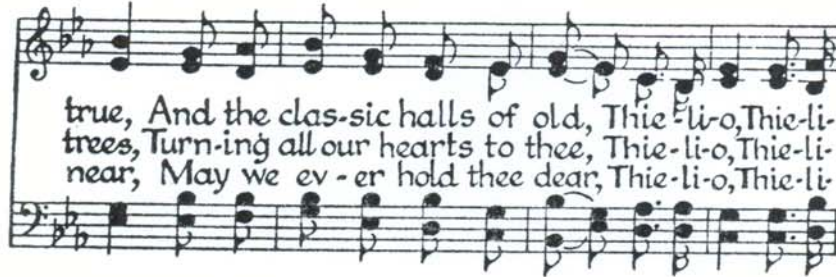

By the banks of old Shen-an-go, Thie-li-o, Thie-li-o, O'er thy cam-pus broad and rolling, Thie-li-o, Thie-li-o, Loy-al sons and daughters too, Thie-li-o, Thie-li-o,

On the hills up thru the mead-ow, Thie-li-o, Thie-li-o,
And thy groves and orchards growing, Thie-li-o, Thie-li-o, Hail thy ban-ner gold and blue, Thie-li-o, Thie-li-o,

Stur-dy, strong and full in view, Stands our Al-ma Ma-ter Comes a spir-it on the breeze, Stirring Brother Martin's Spread thy mer-it thru the years, Pledge allegiance far and true, And the clas-sic halls of old, Thie-li-o, Thie-li-trees, Turn-ing all our hearts to thee, Thie-li-o, Thie-linear, May we ev-er hold thee dear, Thie-li-o, Thie-lio, And the clas-sic halls of old, Thie-li-o. o, Turn-ing all our hearts to thee, Thie-li-o.

o, May we ev-er hold thee dear Thie-li-o.
