Host Family Commitment

- Attend the Host Family Orientation meeting on August 20, 2011 prior to arrival of the students.
- Ensure at all times that the student(s) are with an adult who will provide conscientious guidance.
- Show respect for the students, as well as their culture and rich traditions.
- Try to learn some of the student's words and phrases, and help the student learn more English, to improve communication.
- Enlist the help of the Director of International Student Affairs if there are questions or problems that need their assistance.
- Do not take the student out of the United States without permission from the Director of International Student Affairs.

I/We have read the above Host Family Commitment and understand our responsibilities.

I/We give the Director of International Student Affairs of Thiel College permission to contact my/our listed references.

I/We am/are voluntarily releasing the information above to Thiel College in order to verify my identity for purposes of its background investigation process.
