2018 Camp Dates:

Thursday, August 2nd - Saturday, August 4th

Camp Objectives:

The format of both camps is designed to balance skill development and competition as equally as possible. The three day sessions will consist of both drills used in a typical practice, as well as competitions in various match- like settings. The primary goal of every session is to get every camper as many high quality, game-like repetitions as possible. Every time we step in the gym the camp staff will push every camper to get better.
