Exams for TBA Classes	Will be announced by instructor

Students should try to avoid having more than three exams on one day. For best performance two exams on one day is desirable. Departments that wish to schedule one exam period for multiple sections of a particular course must make arrangements through the Registrar. However, when a student has a conflict, scheduled exams will have priority over rescheduled multiple testing arrangements. Laboratory exams should be announced and given during a laboratory period during the closing days of the term.

This examination schedule will be followed during December 2018. The only exception will be where instructors foresee conflicts and bring them to the attention of the Registrar. If you foresee examination conflicts of a nature, which require a schedule change, please bring them to the attention of the Registrar prior to the posting of the exam schedule in the Thielensian on or about December 1, 2018.
