

"Ask THE EXPERTS"

2017 SERIES

Support for In-Home Care: We Are Here to Help

THURSDAY, MAY 25 • 6 P.M.

The Keifer Building at St. Paul's • 341 East Jamestown Road, Greenville, PA 16125
(Rt. 58 across the road from the sports complex)

Bretton Walberg, Owner
~ ~
Walberg Family Pharmacies
(Eleven throughout Pa. and Ohio)

Alesha Stefanak,
Community Relations Director
~ ~
SouthernCare Hospice

Amanda Diodati-Everyly,
Community Relations Specialist
~ ~
SouthernCare Hospice, Meadville, Pa.

Jim Sherman, Director
~ ~
St. Paul's Without Walls
Home-Based Services

Noreen Sokolak RN, BSN,
Nurse Liaison
~ ~
VNA Alliance

Detailed presenter bios on reverse.

Reservations required. Seating is limited. RSVP by Monday, May 22 to: jkather@lifeatstpauls.org or 724-589-4646.

Bretton Walberg, a native of Greenville, Pa. is a Registered Pharmacist and owner of 11 pharmacies throughout Pennsylvania and Ohio, including Greenville's Care-Fill Pharmacy, Jamestown Pharmacy and Reynolds Pharmacy. After earning his Bachelor of Science Degree in Pharmacy and Business Management, Bretton and his wife, Stacey, purchased Jamestown Pharmacy in 1999 from his parents and have continued to grow their business ever since. In 2014, Walberg Family Pharmacies won the prestigious Pharmacy of the Year Award for the Northeast Region from McKesson Pharmaceuticals, and during the same year, Bretton was selected as a Top Pharmacist Entrepreneur of the Year by Pharmacy Times publication. Walberg Family Pharmacies are proud to be your hometown pharmacy and proud to serve the St. Paul's community.

Alesha Stefanak is a graduate of Penn State University and holds a Bachelor Degree in Business Administration with a minor in Marketing and Management. Alesha started her health care career at Glenn Ellen Assisted Living in North Lima, Ohio, as the Community Relations Director. From there, Alesha moved to Cornerstone Home Health as a Community Liaison and was later promoted to The Ohio Masonic Homes Corporate Home Health Marketing Director based out of Springfield, Ohio. Alesha was given an opportunity to return to her home town with a position at SouthernCare Hospice as the Community Relations Director. She has held this position for the past two and a half years, servicing hospice patients and their families in Mercer and Lawrence Counties.

Amanda Diodati-Everly is a Community Relations Specialist with SouthernCare Hospice of Meadville, Pa. Amanda earned her Bachelor's Degree in Social Work in 2007 from Youngstown State University. She spent six years in long-term care social work, specializing in geriatric psychiatry, before going on to earn her licensure in nursing home administration from Allegheny County Community College. After obtaining her licensure, Amanda worked as a nursing home administrator in Lawrence County, Pa for four years. In December 2016, Amanda joined the SouthernCare team, where her years of experience with patients and families allows her to provide resources and education to the Mercer, Crawford and Venango counties which SouthernCare serves.

Jim Sherman is the Director of Home Based Services for St. Paul's Without Walls in Greenville, Pa. He created and/or developed three previous in-home programs prior to his arrival at St. Paul's. In 2012, he developed a Private Duty program to enhance services already offered at St. Paul's. In the past five years the Without Walls program has exceeded the expectations of the consultants leading to a current staff of more than 80, serving a consumer base of more than 250 individuals. He also currently serves as the president on the board of the Greenville Kiwanis Club and is an active member of the M.E.R.P. advisory board for UPMC.

Noreen Sokolak RN, BSN, has worked for VNA Alliance for one year. In her role as Nurse Liaison, she strengthens the relationships with her partners in Mercer County and functions as a go-between with VNA Alliance and St. Paul's and Grove City Medical Center. She also builds and strengthens relationships with health care providers and facilities in Mercer County. Her professional experience includes 20 years of marketing in the healthcare field, from respiratory/durable medical equipment, home infusion and hospice. Noreen earned her BSN degree at Ursuline College in Pepper Pike, Ohio.