Exams for TBA Classes	Will be Announced by Instructor

Departments that wish to schedule one exam period for multiple sections of the same course must make arrangements through the Academic Records Office at Registrar@thiel.edu. However, when a student has a conflict, scheduled exams will have priority over rescheduled multiple testing arrangements.

End-of-term Laboratory exams should be announced and given during a laboratory period during the closing days of the term prior to the start of final exam days.

This examination schedule will be followed for all classes. The only exception will be where instructors foresee conflicts and bring them to the attention of the Registrar. If you foresee an examination conflict that requires a schedule change, please bring it to the attention of the Registrar at Registrar@thiel.edu.
