

YOUR FUTURE LOOKS GOOD ON YOU.

You've Earned the Interview. Now, Let's Help You Own the Room.

Your resume tells them what you know, but your appearance tells them who you are. Don't let a missing tie or the wrong patterned blouse stand between you and your dream career.

Introducing Simon's Closet, a premier professional development resource provided by Thiel College Career Services and proudly sponsored by Grove City Premium Outlets.

Simon's Closet

We believe every Thiel student deserves to look the part and confidence is your best accessory.

- Focus on Your Skills: When you aren't worrying about your outfit, you can focus on selling your skills and experience.
- Level the Playing Field: Walk into your internship or job interview feeling just as polished and prepared as the competition.
- Look the Part, Be the Part: There is a psychological power in dressing for success. When you look like a professional, you start to feel (and act) like one.

What We Offer:

- Style Strategy: We help you navigate the unwritten rules of professional attire so you never feel out of place.
- The "Oops" Kit: Forgot your blazer at home? Spilled coffee on your shirt right before the fair? We are your campus emergency wardrobe backup.

Get Started:

- Don't Stress: Visit us before interview season heats up.
- Book Your Session: Appointments can be scheduled via Handshake with Nalini Downing, ndowning@thiel.edu
