

DRESS FOR SUCCESS.

Simon's Closet will help you step into your interview with confidence.

What is Simon's Closet? Simon's Closet is a professional clothing resource located right here on campus. We provide Thiel College students with high-quality, "Interview Ready" business attire—completely free of charge. Whether you have a job interview, a career fair, or a class presentation, we have the wardrobe to help you look the part.

Simon's Closet

Student Guidelines & How It Works: To ensure every student has access to professional wear, please observe the following guidelines:

- Eligibility: Open to all enrolled Thiel College students.
- The "Interview Ready" Standard: Our inventory consists of modern suits, separates, professional tops, and dress shoes. These items have been curated to meet professional industry standards.
- Browse & Try On: You are welcome to browse the selection and try on items to ensure the perfect fit.
- Keep It Professional: Please treat the space and the clothing with respect so that future students can benefit from this resource.
- Assistance Available: Career Services staff are available to help you select appropriate attire for your specific industry or event.
- Limit 1 outfit per student per academic year.
- Borrow or keep outfits for future events.

Powered by Generosity

A Note of Appreciation. Simon's Closet is proudly sponsored by Grove City Premium Outlets. It is also supported through the kindness of Thiel alumni, faculty, staff, and community members.

Every suit, blouse, accessory, and pair of shoes in this closet was donated by someone who believes in YOU and your future success. When you wear these items, you carry the support of the entire Thiel family with you.
